

Department of Recreation, Parks, & Leisure Services Administration – Publications & Grants from 2005 & 2006

Publications:

- Coles, R. (2005). "Parks and Recreation: More Than Fun and Games; It's Benefits and Accountability." Michigan Parks and Recreation Magazine.
- McDonald, J. & Dominguez, L. (2005). Moving from content knowledge to engagement. Journal of College Science Teaching, 35(3), 18-22.
- Dominguez, L. & McDonald, J. (2005). Environmental service-learning projects: Developing skills for taking action. Green Teacher, 76(2), 13-17.
- Ellard, J. A. Respectful Tourism Development in Rural Communities with Amish Populations. Journal of Travel Research. Submitted Sept. 2005. In Review.
- Ellard, AI & students of RPL 420. City of Clare, MI Parks & Recreation Master Plan, 2005.
- Janes, P. (2005). The challenges of providing training in small sized lodging properties. Journal of Human Resources in Hospitality and Tourism, 3(2), 125-150.
- Pybus, D. & Janes, P. (2005). Recreation programming partnerships: What MRPA member organizations are doing. Michigan Parks and Recreation, Spring, 20-26.

Grants:

- Dominguez, L. Co-PI, Central Michigan GEMS Center for Math and Science Professional Development, Research Excellence Fund, Central Michigan University, May, 2005 ($100,000)
- Dominguez, L. & McDonald, J. Service Learning and the Environment: Odyssey Nature Project, Michigan Campus Compact, January 1, 2004 - July 1, 2005. ($2300)
- National Tourism Foundation. Janes, P., Gagnon, G. & Luckhardt, W. $1,000-$2,000 scholarship awarded to a CMU student through 2009.